CHICAGO—This month, seven of Illinois' metropolitan (metro) areas experienced increases in their over-the-year unemployment rate and eight of the metro areas had increases in nonfarm jobs, according to preliminary data released today by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) and the Illinois Department of Employment Security (IDES).

"The state is still experiencing not nearly enough growth," said IDES Director Jeff Mays. "While the unemployment rate is slightly increased from a year ago, it's not nearly enough growth as we continue to lose ground to other parts of the country."

Illinois businesses added jobs in eight metro areas, in which the largest increases were seen in: Rockford (+1.7 percent, +2,600), Champaign-Urbana (+1.5 percent, +1,700), Elgin (+1.4 percent, +3,700), and Lake-Kenosha (+1.4 percent, +5,800). Total nonfarm jobs in the Chicago-Naperville-Arlington Heights Metro Division increased (+1.1 percent or +40,300). Illinois businesses lost jobs in six metro areas including Carbondale-Marion (-3.4 percent, -2,000), Bloomington (-2.4 percent, -2,300), and the Quad Cities (-2.3 percent, -4,300). The industry sectors recording job growth in the majority of metro areas were: Education and Health Services (10 of 14), and Other Services (nine of 14).

Not seasonally adjusted data compares September 2016 with September 2015. The not seasonally adjusted Illinois rate was 5.4 percent in September 2016 and stood at 12.2 percent at its peak in this economic cycle in January 2010. Nationally, the not seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 4.8 percent in September 2016 and 10.6 percent in January 2010 at its peak. The unemployment rate identifies those who are out of work and looking for work, and is not tied to collecting unemployment insurance benefits.

East Central Illinois Highlights

Help Wanted

Area employers advertised for 4,400 positions in September and approximately 83 percent sought full-time employment, according to Help Wanted OnLine data compiled by the Conference Board, which is a global, independent business membership and research association. Employers actually need more workers than the help wanted advertising indicates because some industries, such as Construction, typically do not post advertised job openings. Employment opportunities were available in Transportation, Health Care, Sales, and Office Support Occupations in the fall of 2016. Job openings were also advertised for Education, Computer, and Management occupations. Installation, Maintenance, and Repair workers were also in demand. Many jobs were advertised in Food Service, Engineering, Finance, and Production occupations.

Champaign-Urbana MSA

The not seasonally adjusted unemployment rate increased slightly to 4.9 percent in September 2016 from 4.8 percent in September 2015. In September 2016 there were an estimated 6,000 unemployed in the labor force.

Non-farm employment increased from its year-ago level by +1,700. Retail Trade (+700), Education-Health Services (+500), Government (+400), Construction (+200), Information (+200), Transportation-Warehousing-Utilities (+100), and Leisure-Hospitality (+100) recorded job gains. Wholesale Trade (-300), Manufacturing (-100), and Professional and Business Services (-100) recorded an employment loss from September 2015.

Danville MSA

The not seasonally adjusted unemployment rate increased to 7.2 percent in September 2016 from 6.9 percent in September 2015. In September 2016 there were an estimated 2,600 unemployed in the labor force.

Non-farm employment decreased from its year-ago level by -200. Wholesale Trade (+100) and Transportation, Warehousing, and Utilities (+100) recorded job increases. Manufacturing (-200), Other Services (-100), and Professional and Business Services (-100) recorded an employment loss since September 2015.

Note:

- Monthly 2015 unemployment rates and total non-farm jobs for Illinois metro areas were revised in February 2016, as required by the U.S. Dept. of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS). Comments and tables distributed for prior metro area news releases should be discarded as any records or historical analysis previously cited may no longer be valid.
